

Workplace Mediation

HOW IS IT DIFFERENT?

WHAT IS ESSENTIAL?

WHAT IS NEW?

WHAT QUESTIONS WOULD YOU LIKE ANSWERED?

ADC brings together three of Sydney's leading Workplace Mediators in an interactive panel discussion. Our Master of Ceremony is Sydney Barrister and Workplace Mediator, Max Kimber SC. Join colleagues and peers for this interactive panel event followed by networking drinks.

Our Panelists:

Val Sinclair

Val Sinclair's extensive experience in providing workplace, family and commercial dispute resolution includes over 3,000 mediations. With a background in psychology, Val is an Advanced Accredited Mediator under the National Mediation Accreditation Standards, a Registered Family Dispute Resolution Provider and highly experienced trainer, coach and assessor of conflict resolution skills and dispute resolution processes.

Catherine Davidson

Catherine Davidson practices as a mediator, facilitator, and conflict management consultant. Combining her legal background with strong communication skills, Catherine's expertise has established her reputation as a leading commercial and workplace mediator.

Catherine's mediation experience includes working in Australia and internationally, in both the private and public sectors.

Bianca Keys

Bianca Keys is a highly experienced mediator, trainer and conflict management coach. She is currently a Director on the Mediator Standards Board and operates her own consultancy, specialising in workplace conflict resolution.

Bianca has diverse experience in Australia, Asia and the Middle East and utilises her legal background to assist clients resolve a wide variety of professional disputes.

Our MC:

Maxwell Kimber SC

Max Kimber is a barrister and mediator with particular expertise in employment contract and related matters. Max has regularly mediated both Court ordered and other disputes across this field. As a barrister, Max has developed an extensive practice over 30 years; advising employees, employers and government departments on employment and "work" issues and how best to manage issues and resolve disputes cost effectively. He still appears as counsel in such processes, especially conciliation and mediation.
